Culture Programme of the European Union.

EMEE FINAL CONFERENCE

'EuroVision – Museums Exhibiting Europe' (EMEE) is a European museum development project focusing on history-related national and regional museums. With innovative and interdisciplinary approaches, based on history didactics EMEE develops multiperspective ideas for reinterpreting museum objects from a more European angle and for engaging visitors in museums in a participative way.

The EMEE project is coordinated by the Chair of History Didactics at Augsburg University.

Project partners are:

- National Museum of Archaeology, Lisbon (Portugal)
- National Museum of Contemporary History, Ljubljana (Slovenia)
- National Museum of History, Sofia (Bulgaria)
- University Roma Tre Rom (Italy)
- University Paris-Est Créteil – ESPE, Paris (France)
- Atelier Brückner GmbH, Stuttgart (Germany)
- art association monochrom, Vienna (Austria).

The final conference assembles partners, network members and stakeholders to officially conclude the EMEE project. The project work, its outcomes and recommendations for policy-makers and stakeholders will be presented and the future development of the EMEE concepts and networks will be discussed.
